Creative Kids offers financial assistance so more Saskatchewan children participate in art, music, dance, theatre, and a variety of cultural activities.

WHO IS ELIGIBLE?

Creative Kids funds children from families with financial barriers. Funding is for:

- Saskatchewan children ages 4 to 19
- Families with the greatest financial need
- Artistic and cultural activities
  (See list at: www.CreativeKidsSask.ca - Apply Now)
- Funding is paid to the service provider

DISPLACED UKRAINIAN FAMILIES

Displaced families do not need to provide a Notice of Assessment or financial documents. Please indicate that you are a displaced family on your application.

WHAT DOES CREATIVE KIDS COVER?

Creative Kids may provide up to $750 per child for their activity. Funding resets every June 1, so an applicant could be funded for a maximum of $750 for a September to May dance class, for instance. Apply before the class begins.

Some instrument rental or purchase costs, dance shoes, dancewear, or art supplies are eligible if applying to take a class.

FINANCIAL NEED

Families most often supported have incomes less than $45,000. You will be asked to include documents that verify your current household income.

HOW TO APPLY

- Choose an activity that has not yet started.
- Find out the class dates and costs.
- Complete this application form.
- Include a Notice of Assessment from Canada Revenue Agency or pay stubs.
